Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise

No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a sure and saie cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now onabled to ofter, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity.

That which protects from or prevents this discrete must be of immense service in the communities where it provails. Precention is better ance, founded on proof, that he was a sea and content and the from its use in any quantity.

That which protects from or prevents this disorder must be of immense service in the committee where it prevails. Prevention is better than care, for the national seasons the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baseful distemper. This "CHEP" exples the minematic poison of FEYER AND AGE, from the system, and prevents the development of the discuss, it taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever for theodovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of everybody; and in bilious districts, where FEYER AND AGCE prevails, everybody should have it, and use it freely, both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all—the poor as well as the vich. A great superfority of this remeily over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of intermittents is, that it contains no Quimino or mineral; consequently it produces no quinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the minsmatle poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its britation, among which are Noncalgia, theumatism, Gout, Headache, Hindness, Toothache, Earache, Cainrit, Ashout, Palpiation, Palmitt Affection of the Spicen, Hysteries, Pain in the Bowels, Colle, Paralysis, and dorangement of the Stomech all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the inventional type, or become periodical. This CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons rand for mineral terms them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons rand for the mineral persons them all alike. It is in invaluable protection to immigrants and persons consequently curse them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarizons districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be exercised from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure; and few will ever suffer from Intermittents if they avail themselves of the pretection this remedy affectles. For Liver Conspicionst, arising from torpidaty of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, simulating the Liver into healthy activity, and producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines fail. DEAR SIR: We learn from apparently well-authenticated statements in the public newspapers, and from private sources, that great suffering and desti-tution prevails in many parts of Kansas-and Nebraska, caused by the severe drought and the ravages of the grass-hoppers during the past summer. There seems to be great reason to fear that in more than one instance death has that in more than one instance death has dy occurred from actual starvation In view of these sad facts, the under-signed would respectfully request you to call a public meeting of the citizens of this city to take such steps as may be deemed heat to relieve the wants of these afflicted people.

Church Removed and Repaired .- The M. E. church building, formerly situated at Mt. Gilead, has been moved to Wheatland, where it has been fitted up in excollent taste, so that now it is one of the neatest church edifices in Macon county outside of Decatur. This removal and improvement has been brought about mainly through the energy and perso verance of the Pastor, Rev. T. D Weems, who has secured of good subscriptions an amount sufficient to pay all the indebtedness incurred by the remov al and repairs. A protracted meeting will be commenced in the new church under the direction of the paster on week from to-morrow. The first quar morrow at 103 a. m. and 7 p. m., by the terly meeting for the year will also be pastor, Rev. Horace Reed. the scarcity of water is almost without precedent. Many are obliged to hand or bring all the water they use either for household purposes or for their stock.

The same trouble is being experienced in our own county to some extent. Many stock wells are dry, and many wells are farm houses have entirely failed. We also hear considerable complaint in the city about wells failing, and many cisterns are dry. Unless heavy rains fall before the ground freezes up there will be a general water famine in this and adjoining counties. Decatur will have the benefit of the water works, which, now that the filter is in, will furnish those families that live on the line of the mains with good, clear water.

Every living in the north part the city should patronis the well-all grocery of W. H. Reems, where thing needed to furnish a table to be had at the most reasonable prices. Remember the place, on Water street, near he railroad.
